

A100

AIS CLASS A

Key Features

Designed for ultimate reliability, the A100 transceiver is built from stainless steel and is fully protected using a die cast zinc die-cast aluminium housing.

The A100 transceiver is a Class A AIS transceiver, which is required for all vessels over 12m in length. It is also required for all vessels over 300 gross tonnage. It is also required for all vessels over 1000 gross tonnage. It is also required for all vessels over 1000 gross tonnage.

The A100 is also available in a Class B configuration, which is required for all vessels over 12m in length. It is also required for all vessels over 300 gross tonnage. It is also required for all vessels over 1000 gross tonnage.

Navigation and Display

- 4.3" colour display
- High resolution graphics
- 1280 x 800 pixels
- 16:9 aspect ratio
- 16:9 aspect ratio
- 16:9 aspect ratio
- 16:9 aspect ratio
- 16:9 aspect ratio
- 16:9 aspect ratio

Power and Battery

- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power
- 12V DC power

Options

The A100 is also available with a variety of options, including a remote control, a power supply, and a mounting bracket. These options are available for an additional charge.

Power & Light

The A100 is also available with a variety of options, including a remote control, a power supply, and a mounting bracket. These options are available for an additional charge.

The A100 is also available with a variety of options, including a remote control, a power supply, and a mounting bracket. These options are available for an additional charge.

100%

100%